

JOB DESCRIPTION FOR TEACHER OF BIOLOGY

This role is open to applications from both newly qualified and experienced Science teachers.

Job Purpose

Through effective teaching and consistent adherence to the school's educational aims and policies, to be responsible for helping pupils to realise their learning potential

Duties and Responsibilities

- To value and contribute to the school's culture of achievement and to its commitment to raising standards of performance
- To champion all whole-school policies so that pupils' learning, health and safety are consistently supported
- To be committed to the progress of all students, whatever their starting points
- To attend and participate in all scheduled meetings in accordance with the school's published calendar
- To plan and deliver dynamic and engaging learning experiences and provide meaningful feedback that supports students' next steps
- To share in supervisory duties in accordance with the school's published rotas
- To be conversant with all published school information
- To keep lesson registers and to record details of classwork and homework set for pupils
- To participate in public and internal examination arrangements together with any other review or assessment programmes and to report on these in accordance with published schedules
- To contribute to the formulation and implementation of departmental and faculty policies
- To be responsible for your teaching room with regard to its good order, appearance, health and safety
- To be responsible for the best use, supervision and security of any resources allocated to you
- To share in the responsibilities of your faculty and of your own specific subject/s
- To comply with the school's Health and Safety Policy