

SIXTH FORM DRESS CODE 2019 — 2020

Sixth Form students are role models for our school community. As such, they are expected to dress smartly. All Sixth Form students are issued with an ID pass and a lanyard, which they must wear at all times.

Female:

- Tailored jacket.
- Tailored trousers, skirt or dress. The skirt or dress should be no higher than 3" above the knee.
- A conventional 2 piece suit.
- A conventional blouse or shirt.
- Plain leather shoes, capable of being polished, or smart sandals.

Male:

- Conventional suit, shirt and tie.
- Plain leather shoes, capable of being polished.

Unacceptable items:

- Jeans, trousers with pockets on the back that look like jeans or combat trousers.
- Jeggings or leggings.
- Corduroy or denim material in any colour.
- Shorts or skorts.
- Leather trousers.
- Hoodies.
- T-shirts.
- Clothing with logos.
- Strapless tops, sheer or low cut clothing that exposes the midriff or shoulders.
- Hats or caps.
- Sportswear / leisurewear, including velour and cotton jersey.
- Unnatural hair colouring or extreme hairstyles.
- Visible tattoos, facial piercings and excessive jewellery.
- No trainers, sports shoes (Converse, Vans etc), Uggs, Timberland or similar style boots, excessively high heels, flip flops or shoes with open toes or sling backs.

Students may bring in an appropriate change of clothes - to be worn only in the relevant lesson - for certain subjects, e.g. PE, Drama, Art.

Due to ever-changing fashions, the list above is not exhaustive. We do ask that parents and carers support students in using their judgement for some specific garments. We reserve the right to send a student home to change their outfit should we judge their clothing to be in breach of the dress code. Time spent this way will need to be made up by the student.
